

Richmond Kwanzaa Kollektive: An Afrikan Heritage Celebration
 Powhatan Hill Community Center
 VENDOR APPLICATION
 "Ujamaa Village"

Business Name:	Business Owner/Contact Person:
Mailing Address:	Phone Number:
Description of items for sale: (Ex: books, jewelry, body care products, etc.)

In the Spirit of Ma'at (TRUTH, JUSTICE, BALANCE, ORDER, HARMONY), I acknowledge and agree to the following: EACH VENDOR IN THE "UJAMAA VILLIAGE" (Please check all boxes)

Has a standard 6' table space with 2 chairs. Space is limited please no extra tables.

Must pause the selling of merchandise when indicated at specific times during the program (If set up in main room). This preserves the sacredness and integrity of some of the activities and allows each attendee to focus on the purpose for which we have gathered.

Will be allowed to set up beginning at 1:00 pm and must be finished set up by 3:00 pm

Breakdown must be completely cleared out by 8:00 pm (A reminder will sound at 7:30 pm)

All fees must be paid by Monday, December 15th. Payment by cash or money order must be made out to RICHMOND KWANZAA KOLLEKTIVE and may be mailed or delivered in person to:

East District Family Resource Center
 Attn: Richmond Kwanzaa Kollektive
 2405 Jefferson Ave
 Richmond, VA 23224

For more information contact
 Keisha Walker @ (804) 644-4496.

Included in the $50 dollar vendor fee each vendor will receive a one line business listing that will be placed in the souvenir journal that will be shared at the culminating Karamu (feast) on Thursday, December 31, 2009

By submitting your payment, you agree to the guidelines listed above. Space is limited. All fees are non-refundable. For additional info or inquiries, please contact Keisha Walker @ (804) 644-4496. Asante Sana! Harambee!!